The old Nashville Banner, one of the oldest papers published in Tennessee before the war, and having kept the White cause of that State alive, revived a few days.

In the Kentucky Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a majority report opposing reuniting with the Northern Church was adopted by a large majority.

The "Virginia Central Immigration Society" has been orginized and located in Lynchburg.

There are eight men in jail at Charleston, Kanawha county, West Virginia, charged with treason.

Hon. M. T. Hunter arrived in Washington on the 19th inst.

Hon. A. H. Stephens is in good health and spirits at Fort Warren, does pretty much as he pleases and receives company daily.

All the principal interior counties of California have elected Unionists to the Legislature. Only two or three, so far as reported, have gone Democratic.

Col. J. Q. Johnson, President of the Georgia Central Railroad, has affected an arrangement, through Gen. McCallum, whereby he obtains from and after stock on time, from the Government, sufficient to equip the entire line from Macon to Savannah, thus completing railroad communication with Atlanta.

Miss Ann Farrell, a young lady of Columbus, Bartholomew County, Indiana, was riding in a buggy with a gentleman, on Saturday last, when the horse ran away. The young lady tried to jump out, but her hoops caught on the buggy and she was dragged about half a mile. The horse then ran into a mill race and the young lady was drowned.

Jackson City, and the surrounding vicinity is filled with the Union refugees from Arkansas and other Southern States, and many are in a starving condition, sick and without assistance. They are without shelter, with no other place on which to lay than the wet ground, and with no food save such as a feeble charity provides.

The Cincinnati Gazette learns on reliable authority that the reports circulated by the Eastern papers relative to the speedy trial of Jefferson Davis and Justice Chase's connection with it are false. It says the Chief Justice has very recently declined a conference on the subject, and that it is all likely that he will hold any court in North Carolina until after Congress has had an opportunity of legislating in relation to the circuits in the rebel States.

The poverty and suffering of the people of Virginia is described as very great. People enjoying the evacuation of Richmond are to-day asking for their nebegalities to buy for bread. A relative of Justice Marshall, and one of Thomas Jefferson, have each been recipients of such charity. These are aged persons, unable to labor, and without any support from their children.—Females.

The son of ex-Governor Brown of Georgia was killed on his arrival at Knoxville, Tenn., one day last week, by some railroad employees, who, it is said, had issued an order last year for the execution of any railroad person found in the employ of the United States. A similar abuse, in a different form, was enacted on the arrival of Gov. Brownlow at Chattanooga. The military interfered, however, the Governor, and quelled the disturbance.

Considerable warfare seems to be going on just now between the authorities of Chicago and the butchers. In consequence of the complaints made against slaughter-houses, the authorities have declared ten establishments as nuisances. On the same day a mass meeting of butchers was held, at which it was proposed to close the slaughter-houses, by creating a meat famine, stop the war tax levied upon them.

The Librarian of Rebel Archives, under the charge of Colonel Lieber, is now at work upon the examination and classification of the five hundred boxes of the late rebel government. These documents relate to every department and bureau of the rebellion, and cover the larger part of the military history. The title of the bureau has been changed to the Archive Office of the War Department. The office occupies rooms on F street, adjoining the preparation of Ford's Theatre, and is in readiness about January 1st.

Mr. Appleton, 440 Broadway, will publish in a few days a companion work to Bowman's "Campaigns of Sherman," and in some respects a more important work, as it will include the whole military history of the late war: "Grant and his Campaigns; a Military Biography. By Henry Coppee, A. M., Editor of the United States Service Magazine." Professor Coppee had a regular military education; he has been for many years Gen. Grant's intimate friend, and in the preparation of this biography he has had access to official documents to which he alone has had access. The work will appear in one volume of five hundred pages, with eight steel portraits and numerous maps and plans.

The Portland (Me.) Press is informed by a merchant of that city, who was in Montreal last Wednesday, that he saw John H. Surratt there on that day. The fact, notwithstanding he would have every one to suppose he had been allowed to go to Northern Europe, that Surratt has been concealed in Montreal for some time past, and at one time, when "detectives" were in quest of him, he was hid in a recess under the altar of one of the churches. It was understood that he was to take passage for Glasgow in the steamer St. George, which was to sail from Quebec for Europe on Friday.

According to the London News, Captain Robert Dale, one of the lamented martyrs, is at Portsmouth, studying for the bar.

THE DAILY

RALEIGH

THE CITY.

Daily Visitors.—Persons in search of [illegible] upon the authorities, will find [illegible] for vigilance.

The most recent affair of [illegible] related to us by a city officer, occurred [illegible] a mile or more of Raleigh. Six negroes, one from Wake and the other five [illegible] their way to market, [illegible] passed peaceably enough on the night. Not long after stopping, they were accosted by [illegible] who told them not only of better ones and other markets, but also of money and other valuables. One of the whites, and the one who [illegible] ground and [illegible] with [illegible] things. The assailants were all well armed with pistols, guns and other weapons, and after accomplishing the robbery fired them off with celebrated effect.

Of course the robbers were not arrested and are still at large. And we shall have the same record to make of future similar offences until Wake county has a local police. Such a force should be at once formed by the citizens for their own protection. The neighboring counties attended to this matter some time ago, and we [illegible] of a protective character. It is the only safe policy in the interest of law and order, and if action is had in the premises at once may save both life and property.

Vagrants.—We have a host of complaints against people in country and city who have relapsed into a state of do-nothingness. It is said there are whites as well as blacks who could if they would obtain employment, and the apprehension is that unless some means are found for compelling them to toil, great want even to starvation must result during the coming winter.

The most important light in which we see these things, apart from the mere question of individual suffering, is the effect to be produced upon communities. It is as well settled as that the moon is not made of green cheese, that a large majority of the human family will steal rather than starve. It is alike notorious that where much want prevails, something like an equality of crime is found. Now, in these circumstances moral obligation, posterity interest and personal safety all combine to urge that some trouble should be taken to separate the worthy from the unworthy needy. The first should have provision made for them—the latter ought to be imprisoned or otherwise punished until, like good citizens, they are inspired with energy which shall induce them to seek employment and support at other points where demand for labor exist.

The question is one of great importance to the citizens of this and every other city. There is in it more than we we were at first inclined to think, and we trust the authorities may show promptness and wisdom in disposing of this really vexatious topic. Vagrancy is bad at any time, but more so now than at any period within the memory of the present generation.

Another Fight.—Another row between a soldier and one of the tribe of Ham, took place at the market house yesterday morning, resulting in a very pretty race. It appears that there was some disagreement as to a transaction between them, when the former struck the latter. Here cuffy resorted to a brickbat, which he hurled with force at the other party, just missing his cranium. This was the signal for other musketeers to interfere, so darkey decided to invoke speed for relief from the reinforcements.—Off he sped with a will, but after a considerable chase the pursuers overtook and soundly thrashed him.—Another of the many cases in which this class have come off second best. Lo, the poor African.

Another version of the affair, and perhaps a correct one, is that said federal tried to appropriate the freedmans apples without paying for them, when the colored boy pelted him with [illegible] and therefore attacked.

At all events the African was jailed and the other party dismissed.

The State Election.—The candidates for the convention from this district have all been chosen yesterday, and we are gratified to say that from their cheerfulness and good humor, no one could possibly distinguish between those who had been defeated and the successful men. The friends of the opposing gentlemen never once lost their temper even on the day of election, but fraternized as sensible citizens ever will. Differences of opinion among people of the same community, of themselves, are not just, wound for either uncharitableness or hatred, and now that the contest is closed, let us all go to work with one will for the prosperity of the city and State.

Sanford's Troupe.—The entertainment given by this troupe last night, at the Exchange hotel garden, is described by those who attended as having been most pleasing. Under the order of such affairs, the [illegible] performed [illegible] in a very good manner, and [illegible] they certainly did all their powers to gratify the audience. [illegible] can be whiled away very agreeably by listening to the Ethiopians.

They appear this evening with an entire change of programme. Turned inside out.

Fair.—The [illegible] have full of strangers, as the list of arrivals at the Yarborough and Exchange hotels testify. It is a happy augury that is another "show" about [illegible] the Fair Ground, [illegible]

Tardy Aid.—The city hands employed on the streets had quit work, we believe, because of the scarcity of funds in the local treasury. In this dilemma, with a promptness and wisdom we commend, the commandant of the post, Brig. General Hardin, decided to turn out the prisoners in jail to perform needful cleaning and repairs. Of course they will be under guard, while laboring and return to their dismal abode when the tasks are done.

Speaking.—Yesterday at mid-day, Messrs. Pennington, Moore, Hood and Hodge made short but felicitous speeches to the people from the steps of the court-house.

National Bank of N. C.—We shall publish tomorrow the advertisement of the Raleigh National Bank, which was authorized 19th of this month and will be opened for business on the 27th inst. We have now only time to congratulate the community upon the fact.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 23, 1865.

The Election.

The election for members of the convention is over and everybody seems to be glad of it. As for our own part we feel no regrets, concerning the contest or the result. We have but discharged what we conceived to be our duty to the conservative party and ourself. Though beaten, we feel that the campaign and its results will prove valuable to us in many respects, because they furnish us additional evidences of the necessity of self-reliance. The result might have been different had those we had stood by in other times been as zealous in our behalf as we had ever shown ourself in theirs; but we have no word of censure for any one.

If during the campaign we have said or done anything to wound the feelings of any one we regret it; and now that all is over we can conscientiously say that we bear no unkind feelings towards a single human being.

We trust that the convention will come up manfully to the work before it and restore the State to the Union as speedily as possible. We desire above all things the restoration of civil law and the old order of things. Let the Convention prepare a constitution and present it to the people as soon as possible so that we may have a Legislature in session in time to select Senators before the assembling of Congress in December. If those who are in authority shall be governed by wisdom and prudence we shall have all our civil forms restored, the troops withdrawn and civil law again supreme by the first day of January. Nothing that we can do to accomplish these results, so much desired by all our people, shall be left undone.

THE "CONFEDERATE COTTON LOAN."

NAMES OF THE ENGLISH VICTIMS.

WASHINGTON, September 18.—Many of the holders of the "Confederate Cotton Loan" in England avoided the recent meeting in London evidently for fear of an exposure of their individual complicity in the ridiculous transaction. As the London journals, therefore, seem at a loss to know who the happy speculators are, they will be enlightened by following list of some of those British subjects who have thus invested with an estimate of losses sustained by them respectively:

Sir Henry Houghton, Bart.	£180,000
Isaac Campbell & Co., No. 71 John street, London, Army Contractor	150,000
Thomas Sterling, Bexbie, No 4, Mansion House place, London, ship owner	140,000

Right Hon. Wm. Everat Gladstone	2,000
Total	£896,000

The attitude of the United States Government on the subject is plainly set forth in the following official letters:

MR. SEWARD TO MR. ADAMS.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, D. C., March 15th, 1865.

Charles Francis Adams, Esq:

SIR—An impression is understood to prevail in Europe, especially among the holders of the Insurgent Loan, for which cotton was pledged as security, that in the event of the restoration of peace in this country this Government will assume the public debts of the insurgents, or certainly the particular one referred to. It is believed, however, that no impression could be more erroneous. There is no likelihood that any part of that debt will be assumed or recognized by the United States Government. It is proper and advisable, therefore, that by any proper means at your command you should authoritatively undeceive the public in England on this point.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

WM. H. SEWARD.

MR. SEWARD TO MR. ADAMS.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, August 10, 1865.

Charles Francis Adams, Esq., &c., &c.:

SIR—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch, No. 1,022, together with the papers which contain an interlocutory decree which has been made by the Vice Chancellors in the suit of the United States against R. Rollave and others, which suit was instituted for the recovery of 1,350 bales of cotton. A copy of the Vice Chancellor's reasons for the interlocutory decree is found among the same papers. The Vice Chancellor is understood to have affirmed the title of the United States to the property in question. It is with the judgment of the Vice Chancellor and not with the reasons that he assigns for such judgment that the United States are concerned. In this view of the subject it might seem proper for this Government to leave the subject unnoticed. The frankness, however, which ought to be practiced in the proceedings of States, requires an explanation of the views which the Government has taken of the questions which the Vice Chancellor has discussed in his reasons before mentioned. The United States do not admit that the combination of disloyal citizens which have raised the standard of insurrection is now or has at any previous time been a Government de facto, or in any sense a political power, capable of taking, holding, giving, asserting or maintaining corporate rights in any form, whether municipal or international. It is true that a different view of the character of the insurrection has appeared to find favor with some portions of the British nation, and even with the British government. It must be remembered, however, that [illegible] views as that extraordinary opinion [illegible] opposed by [illegible] though, as [illegible] United States [illegible] the Vice Chancellor, and, therefore, it would seem not only unnecessary, but even improper, to bring at the present time the subjects herein discussed to the attention of Earl Russell. If, however, you should discover that Her Majesty's Ministers are laboring under any misapprehension of the views of the Government which should seem to need correction, you will supply such correction upon a proper occasion, and in a friendly and courteous manner.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

WM. H. SEWARD.

Trade with the South.

FROM THE SEC. OF THE TREASURY.

IMPORTANT TRADE CIRCULAR.

The following important circular relative to Southern trade, was issued on Monday last by the Secretary of the Treasury:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Sept. 18, 1865.

In the circular issued by this Department on June 21, 1865, reference was made to the provision contained in section 48, of the Internal Revenue Act of June 30, 1864, conferring upon the Secretary of the Treasury discretionary power in regard to the assessment, levy, and mode and manner of collection of taxes in the States lately in rebellion.

Under the authority given by that section it was then stated that the Department, without waiving in any degree the rights of the Government in regard to taxes heretofore accruing, would not insist at present upon their payment, so far as they were payable prior to the establishment of a collection district embracing the territory in which the tax-payer resided. It was further provided that manufactured articles found in the hands of a purchaser, which were satisfactorily shown to have passed from the manufacturer before the establishment of the district, should not be subject to tax, unless transported beyond the limits of the State lately in insurrection. No exception was then made in favor of articles which had remained in the possession of the manufacturers, and thus become liable to the tax imposed by the existing law.

The Department, preferring to test the practical workings of the regulation before exercising its power of modification in this important particular, representations since made relative to the hardships of this discrimination between manufacturer and purchaser, have been corroborated by careful inquiry, and induce the conviction that a further exemption is justifiable and advisable.

It is found that considerable quantities of manufactured products have been retained by the manufacturer in expectation that the safest mode of investing his property, until the return of peace, that this retention was determined on and carried out without the knowledge or opportunity of knowledge of the law subjecting this property to heavy taxation on sale, and that a large part of the manufactures so retained having been much deteriorated in value by the lapse of time and want of proper attention, would not now sell for a sum equal to the tax.

A state of things so destructive to the usefulness of property and to the prosperity of the manufacturing classes is as adverse to the integrity of the Government as to those of the community. For these reasons it is hereby ordered that all articles, in whatsoever hands found, which can be shown to the satisfaction of the Assessor to have been manufactured before the establishment of the district, shall be held free from the present assessment or collection of tax, unless transported beyond the limits of those States lately in insurrection.

Manufacturers of articles liable to seizure for want of inspection marks will protect to the Assessor evidence that such articles were manufactured prior to the establishment of the district, and the Assessor, if satisfied, will cause such articles to be so marked as to be identified and sold without liability to seizure.

All articles transported beyond the limits of the States lately in insurrection will be subject to the tax due under the law in force at the time they were manufactured.

H. MCCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Jubal Early and Pardon.

A most vigorous effort has been set on foot in Richmond for the pardon of Jubal Early, a General in the late rebel army, who was perhaps more frequently beaten than any other officer of all that whipped host of officers and men. Notwithstanding Early's early determination not to be pardoned, and his recent annunciation of that allegation in the streets of Washington, he is, nevertheless, personally most anxious upon this point, and his friends in Richmond are about to make a most desperate onset upon President Johnson to secure for the recreant rebel this priceless boon. Early was a member of the convention which passed the ordinance of secession and took Virginia unwillingly out of the Union. He was not only a member, but a violent one. At the session of the convention, held on Friday, the 14th of June, 1861, the convention proceeded to sign the ordinance of secession. When the name of Mr. Early was called he asked leave to have the following inserted in the journal:

Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, having set aside the Constitution and laws, and subverted the Government of the said United States, and established in lieu therefore an usurped Government founded upon the worst principles of tyranny, the undersigned has therefore determined to sign the ordinance of secession adopted by this convention on the 17th of April last, with the intention of sustaining the liberties, independence and unity of the State of Virginia against the said Abraham Lincoln, his aiders and abettors, and with no hope or desire for reconstruction of the old Union in any manner that shall unite the people of Virginia with the people of the slaveholding States of the North.

JUBAL A. EARLY.

THE population of Iowa is 770,000 an increase of 14 per cent. during the past five years.

Jeff. Davis.

Burnett, of Texas, responded as follows to from citizens of that State, asking him [illegible] Jeff. Davis:

RICHMOND, TEXAS, Aug 24, 1865.

[illegible], J. G. McNeal, John Haynie, John [illegible], and others.

GENTLEMEN: Your communication of Aug. 1st moment been handed me.

[illegible] were in any wise needful, I should feel it impossible to find terms adequate to the full [illegible] on of the sensations your very interesting [illegible] elicited. If it be possible for me to contribute anything to the relief of our venerated Ex-[illegible] Davis, from the painful circumstances around him, I know of no worldly purpose which the brief remnant of my life would be more cheerfully devoted. While I have noticed with sympathy the cruel exclusions to which [illegible] ceration is subjected, I cannot conceive it possible that any respectable portion of the North [illegible] rous to consummate his sufferings by the [illegible] of his blood, and transforming the heroic [illegible] gistrate of our suddued Confederacy, into [illegible] owledged martyr to the cause of political [illegible]. What benefit can accrue to the North, [illegible] uth, or to the world by adding a few more [illegible] the ocean of blood, that has been shed in [illegible] unhappy controversy? It may gratify the [illegible] of a few that are clamorous [illegible] offend the deepest sensibilities of the [illegible] ded of all christendom. When God said [illegible] nce is mine," he did not design, as I believe, [illegible] blood of Jefferson Davis should atone for [illegible] of this great secession any more than yours [illegible].

[illegible], as I have long been, to appearing before [illegible] lic on any occasion, and doubtful of my [illegible] to render any valuable service to our com-[illegible] nd, I submit myself to your disposal with [illegible] le pledge to do what may be possible for [illegible] e furtherance of your benevolent inten-[illegible].

[illegible] ery respectfully, your old friend,

DAVID G. BURNETT.

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,
Embracing the newest styles and latest importations.
Together with
Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Hoop Skirts, Ladies and Misses' Sacque Hats, Trimmed;
Ladies Untrimmed Sacques,
&c. &c.
I have also in addition to my stock of Dry Goods, a very SUPERIOR STOCK OF GROCERIES, which will be sold at prices so as to insure sale.
I have opened in the R. SMITH BUILDING, formerly occupied by Creech & Litchford, commission merchants and auctioneers, corner of Hargett and Fayetteville streets.
I am not going to puff and blow, and say that I bought more goods than any man living, and can sell cheaper than any other man or firm more. Nor do I pretend to say that I can cut a man's head off and stick it on again with wax, that he will live, walk and talk again. I deal in no such humbug, but I say CALL and LOOK for yourselves. I will deal with you honestly and treat you right.
I return my thanks for your liberal patronage which I have received for the last fifteen years. I hope by honest dealing, and strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same.

LATEST NEWS.

CONVENTIONS.

NEW YORK, SOUTH CAROLINA & ALABAMA.

Another Destructive Fire

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Later From Europe

Provisional Governor for Louisiana

&c., &c., &c.. &c.

Washington and Baltimore papers of the 21st, came to hand last evening, enabling us to collect the following interesting summary:

NEW YORK "UNION" CONVENTION.

Syracuse, Sept. 20.—The Republican State Convention organized to-day by choosing Chauncy M. Depew for President. He had previously withdrawn his name as a candidate for Secretary of State. General Francis C. Barlow was nominated for that office, receiving 191 votes against 172 for Gen. C. H. Van Wyck.

Ward Hunt, of Oneida, and John Porter, of Albany, were nominated for Judges of the Court of Appeals by acclamation. Thomas W. Hillhouse, of Ontario county, was nominated for Comptroller.—Col. Howland, of Duchess county, was nominated Treasurer.

EVENING SESSION.

At the evening session, General James M. Martindale was nominated for Attorney General.

Henry J. Raymond reported from the committee on resolutions, a series congratulating the people on the overthrow of the rebellion, and the return of peace, the preservation of the Union, and the extirpation of slavery; returning thanks to soldiers and sailors; deploring the death by assassination of Lincoln and recognizing in Andrew Johnson a statesman of ability, experience, high-toned patriotism and unsullied integrity, and renewing to his Administration assurances of a cordial support; and also approving his sentiments of kindness and confidence towards those communities and individuals lately in rebellion who accept the perpetuation of the Union, and perpetual prohibition of slavery, and approving of his plan of reconstruction.

ANOTHER FIRE IN NEW YORK—LOSS HALF A MILLION.

New York, Sept. 20.—Between twelve and one o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the upper part of the American Rice Mills, No. 151 South st., between Dover street and Peck slip, and before the flames could be checked the entire building, a large five-story brick structure, with its contents, was consumed. The loss cannot fall far short of $400,000, and will probably reach $500,000.

The insurance exceeds three millions three hundred thousand dollars.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Fortress Monroe, Sept. 20.—G. T. Garrison, of Accomac county, has not been taken to Washington as reported. He is on parole.

Jeff. Davis has not been removed to Carroll Hall, but occupies his casemate as heretofore.

The wrecking steamer Alpha, from Baltimore, passed here, bound to Wilmington, North Carolina, to raise the sunken blockade-runners.

General George S. Dodge arrived from Washington on an inspecting tour through this Department. The object is to cut down all unnecessary expenses to Government in the Quartermaster's and other departments.

After completing his work he goes to North Carolina on the same mission.

LATER FROM EUROPE—THE FENIAN EXCITEMENT.

New York, September 29.—11 p. m.—The steamer Australasian, with Queen town advices to the 10th instant, has arrived.

The Cork Reporter announces that the Government had ordered a number of gunboats and two men of-war, to be stationed off Bantry Bay and other stations on the west coast of Ireland.

Cyrus W. Field is a passenger on the Australasian. He was present at one of the meetings of the British Associations, and made a brief speech, expressive of increased faith in the accomplishment of the Atlantic cable. A double line is to be laid next year.

LOUISIANA—APPOINTMENT OF A PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR.

Cairo, September 29.—It is expected that Memphis will soon be abolished as a military post.

The New Orleans Delta learns that President Johnson has appointed J. Madison Wells the Provisional Governor of Louisiana, and given him the same authority as is vested in Governor Sharkey.

GOVERNOR PERRY TO PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 19.

President Johnson:

The Convention have repealed the Ordinance of Secession. The committee have reported in favor of abolishing slavery, equalizing representation, electing the Governor and Presidential Electors by the people, and voting viva voce in the Legislature. These measures will pass. Everything here is harmonious. Thompson, a delegate irregularly elected by the Northern citizens at Beaufort, was permitted to take his seat. B. F. PERRY.

TIME LIMITED FOR PARDON APPLICANTS.

The Washington Chronicle, of the 21st says in consequence of the great number of pardon-seekers who daily besiege the Attorney-General's office, and the almost exclusive attention they absorb in that department, the time for their appearance at this office has been limited to between the hours of 11 a. m. and 1 p. m. The average number of applicants per day is 150—nearly all of whom are of the twenty thousand dollar class.

DEBATE ON THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

Montgomery, Ala., September 20.—The Convention to-day adopted a resolution requesting the Provisional Governor to call out the militia in each county immediately, to repress disorder and lawlessness, which exist in many counties.

The ordinance in regard to the abolition of slavery was debated at length, and further consideration postponed until to-morrow.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

Will radically exterminate from the System Diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience in business, completely superseding those Nauseous and Dangerous Remedies, Copaiba and Mercury in all those diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

In all Diseases of these organs, whether existing in "Male" or "Female," from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

These suffering from Broken down or Delicate Constitutions, procure at once a bottle of these.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his Bodily Health, Mental Powers, and Happiness.

All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

Is the great Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impure state of the blood and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin,

AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Not a few of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expells the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the State HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTES throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
